PROFILE

As an aspiring Software Engineer and Web Developer, I am passionate about solving problems and creating innovative solutions through technology. I recently completed my Diploma in IT Software Development at Rosebank College in 2024 and am eager to apply my skills and knowledge to impactful real-world projects. I am highly motivated, detail-oriented, and committed to constant growth. I believe success comes from perseverance, a strong work ethic, and continuous learning. My dedication to improving my skills and embracing challenges drives me to excel in the field of IT and software development.
